

The Knysna Animal Welfare Society (KAWS) is a non-profit organisation working exclusively for the benefit of animals in need.

Our mission is to protect animals, to heal their sickness, to fight cruelty and to teach others to do the same.

Although situated in Knysna, KAWS's services extend to Sedgefield, Karatara and the surrounding areas. Established in 1951 as a charity organisation, KAWS gets no government funding. All running expenses, including salaries and vehicles have to be met by municipal pound fees, income from our clinic, and the support of animal lovers through their patronage of the KAWS charity shop, various fund raising events and the donation of money.

Meeting our daily expenses is an ongoing struggle and we hope that you will consider the animals in need by adding a bequest to benefit KAWS. Your donation, however big or small, will be used carefully and will carry on caring for animals into the future.

Simply complete the form and attach it to your will, or you can include the bequest when drawing up your will. As KAWS is a registered NPO, donations and to KAWS are tax deductible and bequests are exempt from estate duty.

We thank you on behalf of those who have no voice.
